PRICE, FIVE CENTS.

LAI'D FOR ROBBERS.

THE "KATY" WAS LOADED LAST EVENING

Guards on the Engine and Also in the Express Car—A False Alarm.

M., K. & T. express train No. 1, that left here at 7:20 o'clock last evening, went out loaded for train robbers, as information had been received that led the management to believe that the train would be attacked at a water tank near Ladue station.

In anticipation of an attempted hold-up, a freight train was sent out ahead of the passenger train, pulled by a passenger engine, and the passenger train was pulled by a freight engine.

Aboard the latter engine as guards, were Sheriff Porter, Chas. E. Barnett and John Jackson, while in the express car were Deputy Constable Barnett and a posse of guards.

When the train pulled out from Clinton two strangers boarded the blind baggage, but were forced to take seats in the baggage car. They left the train at Ladue and were joined by a third party who appeared to be in waiting, and all three started to walk toward the engine.

At this stage Superintendent W. B. Lyons ordered them not to attempt to board the engine and the command was heeded, after which the train passed on to Parsons without being molested.

The officers of the company say they feel satisfied it was a false alarm, but at the same time they felt warranted in taking every precaution to prevent the hold-up.

Constable Barnett, Sheriff Porter, John Jackson and others returned this morning, but C. E. Barnett is at Parsons today and is expected home tonight.

TWO MEN KILLED.

The Explosion of a Flouring Mill at Wellington.

Special to the DEMOCRAT.

LEXINGTON, Mo., August 16.—A flouring mill at Wellington, this county, blew up this forenoon, killing Richard Johnson and John Algin.

At this writing only the information above given is at hand, and it is impossible to glean further particulars this afternoon.

Result of a Forced Marriage.

Deputy Constable Barnett this morning arrested Carl Anderson, six miles north, on the charge of having disturbed the peace of his son-in-law, James Rogers. The trouble is said to have resulted from a forced marriage in which Rogers and Anderson's daughter were the parties interested. The accused is booked for a hearing before Justice Fisher this afternoon.

The Doctor's Thanks.

The thanks of Dr. W. N. Graham, business manager of the DEMOCRAT, are returned to the management for a membership certificate in the "Missouri Sabbath School Assembly in the Cumberland Presbyterian Church," now in session at Pertle Springs.

A farewell party was given at Forest park last night in honor of Mr. Bert Stillwell, who left on the early train this morning to join his parents in the far west.

Released From Jail.

Al Willis was released from jail today, after having served six days for disturbing the peace.

Jumped From a Train.

John Allen, a middle-aged man from Chicago, called at police headquarters in Kansas City last night for medical aid. While stealing a ride on a Missouri Pacific train near Montserrat, eighty miles east of Kansas City, yesterday morning, he jumped to the ground and broke his right collar bone. He paid his way to Kansas City on the next train and Police Surgeon Iuen reset the broken bone.

Hiram is Here.

Hiram Hughes, colored, an ex-member of the police force, is here on a visit from Chicago, where he is conducting a restaurant and is doing a good business.

A CITY HOSPITAL.

IT IS PROPOSED TO ESTABLISH ONE IN SEDALIA.

APPEAL FOR DONATIONS.

The City and County to Work Together in Caring for the Unfortunates Who Are Sick.

So frequent has been the demands upon the city to care for the destitute and unfortunate sick that the mayor has been impressed with the necessity for a hospital.

Many of the applicants for aid are women who come here sick and penniless, or who become so after reaching the city, and it is absolutely necessary that they be given shelter and attention. Many of these cases are truly pitiable to behold, and they are becoming so frequent as to be a serious drain upon the city.

As the cheapest and the best way to care for them, Mayor Stevens, with the co-operation of the county and the charitably disposed people of the city, proposes to rent a suitable building and fit it up as a hospital and temporary home for those for whom the city must provide shelter.

Mayor Stevens has consulted with Judge Dalby and finds that he is favorably disposed toward the project and willing that the county shall help pay the cost of keeping up the hospital.

Mrs. Frensdorf and other ladies who have been prominent in charitable work in the city will aid the enterprise in every way. They propose to prepare fifty sacks which they will place in various neighborhoods in the city and request charitable persons to place therein such articles as they can donate to the hospital.

In the meantime the mayor requests that all persons who have articles of furniture, bedsteads, cots, tables, chairs, or sheets, blankets or bedding that they can spare to donate them to the hospital, where they will help to make some poor, unfortunate sufferer comfortable for at least one night.

If persons who have any of these to give will notify the mayor they will be called for and thankfully received.

There is enough and to spare in Sedalia, and the sick and destitute should be provided for.

A gentleman and two ladies, while driving along Ohio street behind George Homan's black stallion at noon today, were thrown into the street at Broadway by the wheel of the vehicle coming off, but no one was injured even slightly.

ROBBED OF $89.

Thieves Go Through Conductor Porter Wells' House.

The residence of Conductor Porter Wells, of the middle division of the Missouri Pacific, No. 414 South Engineer street, was burglarized last night and $89 in cash was stolen from under a pillow beneath Mrs. Wells' head.

An entrance was effected by removing a screen and raising a window. The occupants of the house heard no one and did not discover their loss until this morning.

A purse containing $115 was overlooked by the thieves, owing to the fact that it was secreted between the mattresses of the bed in which Mr. and Mrs. Wells were sleeping.

THE INSTITUTE WORK.

Increased Attendance Today and Much Interest Manifested.

The work of the Pettis county Teachers' institute is becoming interesting, and the attendance today was the best of the session. The enrollment at the morning hour was forty-four, principally from the county. At yesterday afternoon's session two interesting papers were read, one by R. A. Blair on "Geology," and the other by G. B. Lamm, on "A Teacher's Aim."

The instructors are laboring very earnestly, and the teachers show their appreciation by giving their undivided attention, and the alacrity with which they respond when called upon to express themselves.

The attendance today is quite encouraging, quite a number of new members enrolling. The exercises were enlivened by talks from Prof. Howard A. Gass, editor of the Missouri School Journal, and Prof. W. F. Bahlmann, superintendent of the public schools of Independence, Mo., and candidate for state superintendent of public instruction.

The interest is growing rapidly among the teachers and it is but safe to say that no institute will furnish better results than that of Pettis county.

Rev. A. R. Cronce, of the M. E. church, city, will address the teachers Thursday, at 4 p. m.

NEEDED RELIEF.

SILVER LEGISLATION NOT AT ALL LIKELY.

LOOK TO OTHER MEANS.

Likely to Be a Deadlock as to Silver—No Unconditional Repeat Possible.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—It becomes more apparent every day that there will be no settlement of the silver question at this session. The anti-silver men are not in the majority and they will agree to no fair compromise—they will have gold or nothing.

This being the case conservative men are looking for other means of relief and as soon as the house banking and currency committee is organized some measure for increasing the volume of currency will be reported.

In the senate yesterday Senator Gordon offered a bill suspending for ninety days the ten per cent. tax on state banks. He declared it

A Sudden Death at a Social.

Mrs. E. J. Schumann, of No. 222 East Sixteenth street, aged 61 years, died suddenly of heart failure, at 9:30 o'clock last night, while attending a social of the Broadway Presbyterian church at the residence of Dr. Conway, Tenth and Osage streets. Mrs. Schumann had been in her usual health during the day and evening and her sudden demise converted Dr. Conway's home from a house of mirth into one of mourning. Undertaker Hillis was summoned and removed the body to the family residence, where the be-

Mr. Voorhees reported the bill authorizing national banks to issue to the full face value of their bonds, but Senator Cockrell objected to its consideration.

Senator Cockrell asked the senate to consider the joint resolution for payment of mileage to senators and members.

Senator Lodge delivered a lengthy argument in favor of the gold standard and Senator Wolcott argued for bimetalism.

Senator Hoar undertook to reply to the free coinage argument delivered by Senator Vest on Monday. In the house the free coinage debate continued under argument.

Official Paper of the City of Sedalia.

The wheat crop in England is said to be the worst ever harvested in fourteen years and the fodder crop of Europe is a complete failure.

By all means pave all the streets possible. Put down as much new sidewalk as the property owners can afford to pay for and repair the old dilapidated walks.

The fair directors are making arrangements to give the people of Missouri one of the best fairs they have ever attended, and the prospects are favorable for a large attendance.

Stand up for your town. Times may be hard in Sedalia, but they are much harder everywhere else. There are unemployed laborers here, but there are fewer than are found elsewhere.

LABOR COMMISSIONER BLACKMORE estimates that one-third of the wage-workers in Missouri are out of employment. Just think of that and then realize how much reason citizens of Sedalia have to be thankful.

GOLD is still being drawn from the Bank of England for shipment to this country. It will be found in the end that Europe needs our food products worse than we need her gold. The pangs of a gold famine are not so severe as are those of a bread famine.

THE people of Georgetown, Texas—or rather some of the people, for it is not probable that any considerable number of citizens would take part in such proceedings—burned President Cleveland in effigy the other night. There is no argument in such a proceeding, nor can it injure the president in any way.

THE New York banks are putting up a pitiful story about their country correspondents who, they allege, are hoarding currency and offering it at a premium. The New York bankers say this is very unpatriotic. For various reason, says the Kansas City Star, catechisms in patriotism from New York bankers are interesting reading.

THE wish that the late Senator Gibson expressed in one of the codicils of his will was that his five sons "may realize early in life that the only thing more difficult to build than an independent fortune, and more easily lost, is character, and that the only safe foundation of character is the ten commandments and Christ's sermon on the mount."

THE south is anxious for the repeal of the tax on state banks of issue in order that the banks of that section may issue money with which to move the crops. The DEMOCRAT is not an advocate of state banks of issue, but the goldbugs must understand that the American people do not propose to be impoverished and if they are not permitted to do business one way they will another.

THE Springfield Democrat has this to say of those who are so roundly denouncing the banks of the country that have been forced to suspend business: "A large per cent of those who idle on the curbstone and indulge analytical financial discussions every time a bank makes a motion to adjourn, never had a dollar on deposit in their lives, and in their personnel represent the army of Micawbers who are constitutionally opposed to the maintainance of the parity between muscle and mouth.

THE merchants of Sedalia are urged to make an exhibit of their wares and merchandise at the fair. The management has incurred considerable expense in preparing the floral hall and they offer the live merchants of the city an excellent opportunity to display their goods before the eyes of possible purchasers. It can be made an attractive feature of the fair if the merchants will all make exhibits. There are no premiums offered for such display, but the advertisement the merchant would receive through an artistic display would more than pay for the cost and trouble. Let's have every merchant in Sedalia represented in the floral hall.

THE attention of the charitably disposed people of Sedalia is directed to the plan proposed for a co-operation of the city and county authorities in an effort to establish a hospital for the relief of the most needy and destitute sick who are thrown upon the care of the city. It is proposed to rent a suitable building and to use it as a temporary home or hospital for sheltering those unfortunates who are unable to provide for themselves. There is an urgent need for this work. The DEMOCRAT understands that Mayor Stevens and Judge Dalby are both impressed with the need for some such provision and that their efforts will be seconded by some of the best ladies of the city.

THERE is a money famine in this country. The circulating medium has disappeared. Whether it has been lost, burned or destroyed cuts no figure. It is gone and its absence constitutes an emergency that would justify congress in proceeding to supply the deficiency just as though no money had ever been issued or coined. It would be a just retribution if the men who are hoarding the money of the country should speedily find its place in the channels of trade taken by some other kind of circulating medium. Congress can do this. The United States government can issue treasury notes, which the people will gladly take as money. The payment of pensions and government expenses can be provided for in advance in this way and the issue deposited in the national banks all over the country until it is needed, and then the revenues of the government can be used to buy up and cancel government bonds, and so an interest-bearing debt can be gotten rid of. The conspirators who started the panic and those who are hoarding money are at war with the people, and a government of the people is justified in protecting its citizens against domestic as well as against foreign enemies. We need more silver, to be sure, but what we need more than anything else is a little more iron at Washington.

A SILLY ARGUMENT.

One of the stock arguments of the goldbug is that with free coinage there is nothing to prevent a syndicate from going on the market and buying up silver bullion at a low price and then taking it to the mints and having it coined, thus making a big profit on the transaction.

The men using this argument lose sight of the fact that under free coinage there would be, comparatively speaking, a fixed value for silver and no chance for speculation. If one man could have it coined into dollars, another would enjoy the same privilege, and its coinage value, less the cost of sending it to the mint, would be its merchantable value.

No man with a grain of sense would sell bullion below its coinage value any more than he would sell bank bills as old paper.

The acting director of the mint, who is himself a goldbug, recently admitted, in an interview, that the coinage of silver by the Latin Union at the ratio of 15 1/2 to 1 fixed the selling price of silver on the London market as long as the mints were kept open.

If the coinage of silver by the Latin Union fixed its price in London, there can be no question about a great nation like the United States being able by free coinage to fix its value in this and other countries. The sole and only motive for establishing the gold standard is to make a dear dollar. It was for this purpose that silver has been demonetized in this and other nations.

A TRUE LEADER.

Missourians are glad to read the brave and earnest words of Senator Vest in favor of bimetalism.

His speech was perfectly in line with the principles for which he has battled in every campaign since 1870, and his bold and brave advocacy of the interests of the people forever settles the silly story that he had changed his views on the money question.

Every advocate of free coinage was strengthened and encouraged by the statesman-like utterances of the senator from Missouri, and every veteran democrat in Missouri will throw up their hat and hurrah for the Little Giant.

When George G. Vest was elected to the United States senate he stood up in the Missouri capitol and after thanking the members of the general assembly, and through them the people of Missouri, for the honor conferred upon him, he solemnly promised that no act of his in the high position to which he had been called, should ever bring the blush of shame to the face of an honest Missourian.

And nobly has he kept his word! Eloquent, brave and honest, he has stood in the senate chamber at all times and under all circumstances battling for the rights of the people.

He is a typical democrat and the natural, as well as the true, leader of the senate.

Men may differ as to the ratio at which gold and silver should be coined; they may not all agree as to the best and safest path to bimetalism, but after reading the unanswerable argument of Senator Vest, no democrat will knowingly vote for the single gold standard in this country.

AMUSEMENTS.

The attendance at the opera house last night to see the Lyceum company in Mountain Nemeses was good. The play for tonight is "Hearts of Gold." Mr. Mac M. Barnes will positively be here tonight and play his part in the piece. The company will remain here the balance of the week including Saturday matinee.

Will Organize Tonight.

A. M. Russell, deputy head consul of the Modern Woodmen of America, will organize a camp at Glass' hall to-night, but exactly how many charter members will be enrolled Mr. Russell was unable to state when seen today. The following occupations are barred from becoming members:

Railway brakemen, railway engineers, railway firemen and switchmen, miners, employees in gunpowder factories, wholesale and manufacturers of liquors, saloon-keepers, bartenders, balloonists, sailors on the lakes or seas, plow grinders and brass workers, professional base ball players, professional firemen and soldiers in the regular army.

Removal.

To my patrons and the public of Sedalia: I take this opportunity of thanking you for the very liberal patronage extended to me in my former place of business just vacated for want of room to accommodate the increasing demands. I therefore solicit a continuation of your favors in my now spacious, thoroughly ventilated, healthy and modern built new quarters, situated on Fourth street, one block west of the court house.

Special care taken of boarders entrusted in my hands, both in regard to their feed and health.

Respectfully,

JOHN A. COLLINS.

His Twelfth Birthday.

Master Casper Hatten entertained a number of his little friends last evening from 3 p. m. to 6 p. m., at the home of his parents, No. 900 Missouri avenue, the occasion being in honor of his twelfth birthday.

There were about thirty young ladies and gentlemen present, who seemed to heartily enjoy the splendid evening's enjoyment, made up of games music, etc.

Master Hatten was the recipient of quite a number of beautiful presents from his young friends who all joined in wishing him many returns of his birthday.

MUST PAY THEIR PRIZES.

THE POLICE ARE AFTER THE FAKE LOTTERIES.

A Nest of Them in Kansas City, Kansas, Will Most Likely Be Weeded Out.

Chief of Police Quarles, of Kansas City, Kas., says that the lottery swindlers in that city will have to pay prizes or he will drive them out of business.

John Lang went to Chief Quarles' office today with a ticket of the Little Louisiana Lottery company, says the Kansas City Star of yesterday, held by his friend, M. Sattelbaum of Madison, Ind., which had drawn a $40 prize. After several unsuccessful attempts to collect it the Indiana man sent it to Lang with the request that the matter be laid before the police.

The chief sent Sergeant Tarpley to the office of Eli Little & Co., who conduct the lottery company in the Portsmouth-building, and he brought in the manager, a dapper young fellow of the name of Wing. Wing's defense was the familiar one that the ticket was not genuine. "The police department is tired of acting as a collection agency for the people all over the country," the chief said to him, "and we do not propose to do so. We intend to run out all swindling concerns which call themselves lotteries."

The wide scope of the work of the numerous lottery robbing schemes is shown by the complaints. Two have come from Indiana and one from Mississippi within a short time. The police were notified some time ago of a case in Birmingham, Ala.

The methods of the swindlers in conducting their business are cheap and effective. They cannot have their traveling men go to every town, especially the small ones, but these cannot be overlooked, as the bait is more readily seized in the smaller communities. The lottery men take Dun's and Bradstreet's, get from them the name of a saloon keeper with a good rating and open correspondence with him. The rating is his only recommendation and he is sent a bunch of tickets to place on sale at a commission.

In the case of J. B. Reabold, of Magnolia, Miss., who held a winning ticket on which payment was refused, Wing has deposited $40 with the police to be paid to Reabold if he will sign an affidavit that he paid for the ticket. The paper has been sent to him but it has not yet been sent back.

"The "Katy" is cutting down its force in consequence of light business," said a prominent local railway man to a Mail representative. Wants a "Cut."

J. J. Frey, general manager of the Santa Fe, was in St. Louis yesterday. He called at the headquarters of the Frisco, the Missouri Pacific and other railways. Ed. Remington, a Pullman conductor on the Denver express of the Burlington line, was arrested at Hannibal yesterday and locked up on the charge of having attempted a criminal assault upon Mrs. Charles Velie, of Denver, Colo., who is visiting relatives in Hannibal.

BOND INVESTMENT COMPANIES.

Ex-Attorney General Wood States His Position.

From the Republic.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 14.—In the communication from our estimable secretary of state in regard to bond investment companies, which appeared in your issue of today reference is made to an opinion given by me while attorney-general, and on account of this reference I beg to remark briefly:

1. The opinion referred to was based on the articles of association presented by Mr. Farr only, and I know nothing of the articles presented to the secretary by any other company nor of what any bond investment company has undertaken to do. 2. The lawmaking power of the state—the governor, who is an able lawyer, and the general assembly, composed of many good lawyers—has recognized the validity of these corporations by enacting a law prohibiting the incorporation of more of this kind (which was unnecessary if the existing law had not authorized their incorporation), and further by an enactment requiring each bond investment company to deposit with the state treasurer $100,000 to secure investors. However, notwithstanding the concurrence of the lawmaking power in the views of the attorney general, the secretary was not and is not legally bound to abide his decision, but may, in my opinion, with the utmost propriety, take the opinion of any other person or tribunal. Very respectfully, J. M. Wood, Ex-Attorney General.

Stock in Market.

The following gentlemen had stock at the National yards in St. Louis Tuesday: T. A. Major, Sedalia, sheep; Henry Fricke, Boonville, cattle and hogs; J. W. Perry, Windsor, cattle; Boschert & Vick, Buncheon, cattle; J. K. McLean, Clifton, cattle; D. E. Longan, Houstonia, hogs.

BUDWEISER BEER ON DRAUGHT,

Sedalia is a Haven for 'Em.

"Sedalia is a great haven for organ grinders and other musically inclined beggars," remarked a gentleman today as he dropped a nickel into the tin cup extended by the old man at Third and Ohio streets. "A great many of them come here from Kansas City and other large places where there are ordinances requiring them to keep off the streets. Of course an ordinance of that kind would be a pretty hard blow to some of these unfortunates who are really worthy, but there ought to be some way of regulating them. The rule should be adopted that not more than one organ at a time should be permitted at the intersection of two streets."

Festival and Celebration.

The thirty-first anniversary of the ordination of Rev. Father B. Dickman, of Sacred Heart church, will be celebrated on Thursday evening, August 17th, by a lawn festival, at which ice cream, cakes, fruits and all the delicacies of the season will be served, and also an oyster supper, at the residence of Father Dickman, corner Third street and Vermont avenue. Everybody invited. Plenty of fine music.

Grand Army Reunion.

The fifteenth congressional reunion of the Grand Army of the Republic met yesterday with the Osage Valley veterans for a three days' session at Balltown. State Commander Charles Burton and several prominent members of the order will address the large gathering.

Liability to Prosecution.

A number of silver dollars are still floating about the city with an advertisement pasted on one side. It may not be generally known that the placing of an advertisement of any sort on money is considered a mutilation and is a punishable offense, but such is the case, and the treasury department has so ruled.

A $2.50 Excursion.

The Missouri Pacific will run an excursion from Sedalia to St. Louis on Sunday, August 27, the fare for the round trip being only $2.50. There will be ten coaches, and the excursionists will have eleven hours in St. Louis. The train will leave here at 6:45 a. m. and reach St. Louis at 12 m. Returning, it will leave St. Louis at 11 p. m. and arrive here at 5 m.

Won the Race.

"Theo. Shelton," owned by John R. Gentry, won the half-mile yearling trot at the Holden races yesterday afternoon, taking two heats in 1:16 1/4 and 1:16 1/2.

A Lady Got the Appointment.

Mary Craig was yesterday appointed postmaster at Gates, Greene county, vice John Craig, resigned.

Her Twelfth Birthday.

Miss Mabel, the pretty and entertaining little daughter of Conductor and Mrs. John Dean, reached her twelfth birthday yesterday, and a party was given in her honor at her home, No. 615 Lafayette street, where the little hostess received her guests most graciously. There were games of various kinds, as well as vocal and instrumental music, and choice refreshments were charmingly served by Mrs. Dean. Miss Mabel was the recipient of several very pretty presents, and she and her guests will long remember the occasion with pleasure. Those present were: Misses Lizzie Landmann, Lucy Lyons, Little Weise, Ida Mayfield, Annie Miner, Grace Shaw, Emma Lawson, Minnie Salmons, Willie Cockrell, Alice Hammon, Mildred Bangor and Davis Riser.

A TEACHER SURPRISED.

Mrs. J. N. Dalby's Sunday School Class Pays Her a Visit.

Mrs. J. N. Dalby was completely and pleasantly surprised last evening on returning from a drive with her husband to find her beautiful home on East Fifth street brilliantly lighted and in possession of seven-teen young ladies who compose her Sabbath school class. The visitors had, with the assistance of Judge Dalby, been planning for several days to spring the surprise on their teacher, and their plans had worked to perfection, as was indicated by the complete chagrin of Mrs. Dalby when she walked into the house and saw seventeen young ladies, attired in, white ranged around the room.

The evening was pleasantly spent in partaking of elegant refreshments and with games and music, Judge Dalby assisting in the latter part of the entertainment by playing "Auld Lang Syne" and other popular airs on his fiddle.

Mrs. Dalby takes much interest in her Sunday school class, every member of which loves her dearly, not only as a teacher, but as a friend and companion; and meetings as pleasantly spent as that of last evening help to bind more closely the ties of affection between teacher and pupil.
